MDAA

NDIS Community Connector Program

For all enquiries 1800 629 072

A program that...

- Assists you to access the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) which focuses on independence and personal choice.
- Improves your understanding to use and manage your NDIS package.
- Provides general support with your current NDIS plan.
- Helps with finding more ways to participate in your community.

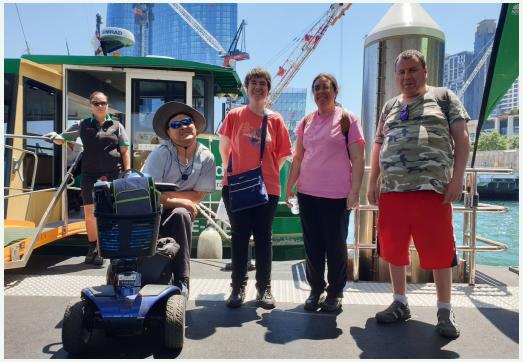
Our Community Connectors can help you with the NDIS!

MDAA Community Connectors

MDAA Community Connectors Program is here to support people from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse and Non-English Speaking Backgrounds to access the NDIS.

A Community Connector from MDAA can support you to:

- Apply for the NDIS
- Connect you with your local NDIS contacts
- Provide support to NDIS participants to understand NDIS services better
- Connect people who do not recieve NDIS to other support services that may be helpful



What is the NDIS?

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is a free government program that provides services and support to people with disability.

How can NDIS help you?

The NDIS pays for support and services for people with disability.

Supports and services can include:

- help with daily chores
- purchase of mobility aids and equipment
- support to meet your goals and do the things you want to do

MDAA Inc. gratefully acknowledges funding provided by the Australian government through Commonwealth funding grants from the Department of Social Services, the NSW Government Ageing, Disability and Home Care, and Department of Communities and Justice
